The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Names Mainstay Life Services a Winner of The Pittsburgh 2020 Top Workplaces Award

Company is Recognized for Top Honor for Sixth Consecutive Year

Pittsburgh, PA., September 20, 2020 – Mainstay Life Services has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2020 honor by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

“In times of great change, it is more important than ever to maintain a connection among employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward based on real-time insights into what works best for your organization. The Top Workplaces program can be that positive outcome your company can rally around in the coming months to celebrate leadership and the importance of maintaining an employee-focused culture, even during challenging times.”

“The last several months have been especially challenging for the people we serve, but our team continues to go above and beyond in light of the pandemic with grace, professionalism and compassion,” said Mainstay Life Services Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Kim Sonafelt. We have such an amazing team in place and I can’t thank them enough for their dedication and commitment during these trying times. I’m so proud of the work we do to help enrich the lives of those in our care and winning this for the sixth consecutive year speaks volumes in terms of the team we have in place here at Mainstay.
